

SCL----- SOUNDTRACK CORRESPONDENCE LIST.

NEWSLETTER #2, MID-JUNE 1990

FIRST WORD

Now that we've gotten underway, it's time to get down to business. Michelle Drayton has volunteered to act as the European mailer to cut down on postage, and that's a good idea. I don't want to ever have to charge dues, but postage is the one thing that can cost me a lot of money in a short period of time. However, what we need right now more than anything are publicists, to let the world know we're out here. I will be writing to the Starlog Fan Network, as many of you suggested, and it might be nice if some of us wrote to other SF mags as well (does Starburst have a Fan Network?). I'll be joining the Goldsmith Society myself, and a letter or ad in their journal, Legend, would be great publicity (contrary to what I had previously believed, the Goldsmith Society does provide a membership/pen-pal list, but I hope you all stay with me as well). As Mark Ernst suggested, an SCL flier to distribute at conventions would also be a very good way to spread the word. If you will be attending a con, let me know and I can type up a flier. On another note, I've gotten better at responding to letters faster-- don't hesitate to write me. I also hope that our collective mind will end the problem of wanting-a-soundtrack-but-not-being-able-to-find-it (see the Wanted section). On a final note, if anyone (for whatever reason) wants to get off the SCL list, you'll have to contact me-- no one pays dues to be on this list, so the names stay on indefinitely. If there comes a time where I do have to charge dues, you all are considered founding members, and will be exempt from dues (yay!).

ON THE SCREENS

Goldsmith is tuning up Total Recall and Gremlins 2-- sounds good! Elfman is scoring Dick Tracy (his last was Night Breed)-- he may do the Roger Rabbit cartoon as well. At any rate, he'll be competing with three Stephen Sondheim songs sung by Madonna. Maurice Jarre is scoring Richard Edlund's 'Solar Crisis', and John Barry will score Kevin Costner's 'Dances With Wolves'. James Horner is returning to do Another 48hrs. Alan Silvestri has done Back to the Future III (he did the first two). ZZ Top has a song, 'Doubleback', in that film, but it's been relegated to the end credits. Leonard Roserman is scoring Robocop 2-- the last thing I saw his name on was Star Trek IV. A recent ST:TNG episode ('Tin Man') was scored by Jay Chattaway. He is only the 3rd outside composer to score an episode; George Romanis scored a 1st season episode ('Too Short a Season') and Fred Steiner scored the 3rd episode of the show, 'Code Of Honor'. All other episodes have been by Dennis McCarthy or Ron Jones. On a sad note, Alien Nation: The Series, which has provided some very original music instead of usual TV dreck, has been cancelled. Fox television has apparently overlooked the fact that the show's 1st season ended with a cliffhanger.

IN THE STORES

The soundtracks for Robocop 2, Back to the Future III, Gremlins 2, and Total Recall are on Varese Sarabande 'CD's and cassettes'-- this may mean no record version is being released. Three Dick Tracy albums are coming out on Sire Records: (1)the madonna songs, (2)other Dick Tracy related rock songs, and (3)Elfman's score. Finally, Horner's Another 48hrs is coming out on the Scotti Brothers label (the original 48hrs had no soundtrack), while it seems Silva Screen is releasing CD's of his Battle Beyond the Stars and Star Trek III. Paul Andrew Maclean informs me that Silva Screen is also releasing a CD of the entire 80 minute Goldsmith Legend score (!).

- 2)Footlight Records, 212-533-1572 (Not primarily mail order-- they're a regular record store in New York, but they have a lot of good stuff. Call for info.)
- 3)Derran Trax, 99 High Street, Dudley, West Midlands, DY1 1QP --(0384)-233191

- 5)ASQ Soundtracks, Dept. P, POB 32836, Oklahoma City, OK 73123 --405-720-0502 (This is an excellent records-only [no CD's] store where I bought a mint Star Trek II LP for only $6 last year)

WANTED

Looking for something real bad but can't find it? Let me know and I'll put it in this section. To start, Michael Thompson is looking for a Predator soundtrack (Alan Silvestri) and Michelle Drayton is looking for soundtracks of Looker and The Seventh Sign (Jack Nitzsche, I think). Contact them if you have any info.
